

What is Audio-Lingua ? A collaborative bank of authentic audio resources, recorded by native speakers, for a freely pedagogical or personal use.

Audio documents ? Short, a maximum recording length of two minutes, on various subjects...

Collaborative ? It means that any person who feels interested may contribute sending personal audio documents by filling in the form.

Authentic ? For they are only made by native (English, French, German or Spanish) speakers ! All accents can be useful.

Aim ? To train oral comprehension for anyone who would like to improve this language skill.

All mp3 documents published on this website have been authorized by their authors.

Application for permission to publish audio documents
(For under age teenagers, parents' permission is mandatory)

Surname : _____

First name : _____

Postal address : _____

Telephone number : _____

By signing below, I hereby authorize:

- my personal audio recordings
 - audio recordings of my son / my daughter
- (cross out the item that does not apply to you) to be published on www.audio-lingua.eu .

I may ask for the documents I submitted to be removed from this website by emailing a member of the editorial team at any moment.

This application will be kept by Mr / Mrs _____ who submitted the audio recordings to the editorial team.

Place : _____

Date _____

Name and signature of applicant