

LIVEONLINEMATH™
INTERACTIVE, CONVENIENT, COMPETENT, UNIQUE

LIVE Online Math (www.liveonlinemath.com) is seeking a math tutor/teacher for immediate hire. Work will be performed at home using your own computer hardware and internet connection.

A new hire would be brought on in a limited fashion to begin with, and his/her role may expand based on performance, qualifications, and customer demand. The new hire would initially be assigned to do tutoring and/or workshops. Pay is dependent on qualifications and role. The tutor/teacher will be an independent contractor, not an employee.

Candidates must...

- Have experience as a math teacher/tutor (brick and mortar, online, in-person tutoring, etc.).
- Pass an FBI background check.
- Be able to work in a physical space that is not noisy and has an aesthetically pleasing background for being on webcam.
- Quickly develop rapport/relationship with students via the synchronous online format.
- Have an engaging/fun/humorous personality.
- Have the necessary equipment in order to be an effective synchronous online teacher (high speed internet, headset, webcam, etc.).

Preference will be given to...

- State certificated math teachers or students who are close to receiving their credentials.
- Candidates with synchronous online teaching experience.
- Candidates presently using Elluminate or some other synchronous learning platform where their teaching style and skills may be observed.
- Candidates who are proficient at using a pen tablet.

Compensation...

- $12.00-$18.00 per hr. DOE
- Pay will be made monthly

Hours...

- Hours will be limited (probably less than 5 hours per week to start out).
- The amount of work may increase over time.

If interested, please contact John Bovey for more details by email (jbovey@liveonlinemath.com) or by phone (509-252-0888).