

Introducing Bibkosh

Knowledge Networking for Classroom 2.0

Classroom 2.0 : Yesterday

Bibkosh – the missing piece in Classroom 2.0

▶ The Problems:

- ▶ Information overload : how do I deal with all this knowledge?
- ▶ Recall : “who” knows “what”?
- ▶ Communication gaps : how do I share this with the right person?

▶ The Solution :

- ▶ Bibkosh – Knowledge Networking for Classroom 2.0
- ▶ Allows academics, students and professionals to send and store information in their web-based Personal Knowledge Vault, share it within their knowledge network and showcase their Knowledge Profile on the Web

Bibkosh -Knowledge Networking Re-defined

▶ Capture and Store Knowledge in your Personal Knowledge Vault

- ▶ Send URLs and snippets of information from web pages
- ▶ Upload documents
- ▶ Forward important emails

▶ Categorize your Knowledge and Read Online

- ▶ Automatic semantic classification of Knowledge Objects into relevant Themes
- ▶ Organize your Knowledge Vault by creating Themes
- ▶ Launch your Knowledge Objects and read online.

▶ Collaborate and Share

- ▶ Share your Knowledge within your Knowledge Network
- ▶ Comment on your Knowledge and your connections' Knowledge
- ▶ Create groups and collaborate on common projects.

▶ Create your Knowledge Profile

- ▶ Publish your Knowledge and share it with the world
- ▶ Create your Knowledge Profile and showcase it to the world as your business card on the Web

Classroom 2.0 : Today

Bibkosh Resources on the Web

- ▶ Learn more about bibkosh : <http://www.bibkosh.com/LearnMore.php>
- ▶ Bibkosh – the missing piece on the Web (a short presentation by Titash Neogi) :
<http://prezi.com/cfw9ukustrtv/bibkosh/>
- ▶ Explore bibkosh and register : www.bibkosh.com

Thank you!

► For more information:

► Geetanjali Shrivastava

geetanjali@sievelogic.com

+ 91 9923 588 354

